

back-to-back drawing experiment

back-to-back drawing experiment

In pairs, one person must describe a shape without naming it, and their partner must draw the shape as close to the original as possible.

